

Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?

The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:

- Social Security number and date of birth
- Contact information
- Policy and claim information
- Banking information
- Information about your illness, disability or injury if applicable to your policy

When you are no longer our customer, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.

All financial services companies need to share customers' personal information to run their everyday business. In the sections below we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers' personal information, the reasons Telcott Resolution chooses to share, and whether you can limit this sharing.
