Financial companies choose how they share your personal information Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Perserved this notice carefully to understand what we do

What?

The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:

- Social Security number and date of birth
- Contact information
- Policyand daiminformation
- Barking information
- Informationabout your illness, disability or injury if applicable to your policy

When you are no longer our out one; we continue to share your information as described in this notice

All financial services companies need to share customers' personal information to run their every day business In the sections below we list the reasons financial companies constrate their customers' personal information, the reasons Talcott Resolution chooses to share and whether you can limit this sharing.

PP-1001-0223 Page 1 of 2

Definitions
Afficates	Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and non-financial companies.
Nonaffilates	Comparies not related by common ownership crocontrol. They can be financial and non-financial comparies.

Joint made ting

A formal agreement between non affiliated financial companies thD

bat

PP-1001-0223 Page 2 of 2